

EDUARDO VER

ARTIST'S PORFTOLIO

BIOGRAPHY

From a very young age, Eduardo Ver has practiced drawing as a playful tool to connect with other stories.

His interest in woodcuts, his main research focus, aroused from his experience at the Cruzeiro do Sul University (Sao Paulo), in the early 2000s. It was also during this period that the artist showed up at the door of Piratininga Atelier, where he worked for more than seven years, until 2012. Under the guidance of the engraver artist Ernesto Bonato, Eduardo Ver has improved in the technique and production of engraving, therefore finding the practice that would guide him in his trajectory as an artist.

Eduardo Ver's technique applies many layers of printing on one paper, that is, for each xylography, he produces several matrices, which are superimposed until reaching a certain degree of three-dimensionality.

According to the artist, the aim is to give rhythm to the works, making all its elements coexist in harmony, in a true state of fraternization.

The “magic” of this procedural complexity provides the spectator with a kind of visual trance experience, proposed by the artist to establish a direct relationship with the rituals of Umbanda, a religion of African and Brazilian origin, which holds the same syncretism that is identified in the work of Eduardo Ver.

This mixture of references in the artist's works is usually associated with elements of nature, such as plants and animals, figures of Orixas and Catholic saints, in addition to allegorical objects. Symbols of Sacred Geometry are also identified, along with others that allude both to the indigenous people of Brazil, as well as to Sufism, the mystical religion of Islam, such as arabesques, for example.

BIOGRAPHY

To all this diversified cultural inventory, the artist attributes an elegant palette of colours, inspired by the exercises of observation of the plants that he finds in nature and in the flower shops close to his residence, in the East region of São Paulo city.

In his almost twenty years of artistic production, Eduardo Ver has developed a very original conceptual pace and a refined technical and formal precision, much of which he acquired from his experience with graphic projects.

In his studio, which he calls “Gráfica trabalhando em silêncio” [working in silence print shop], he produces illustrations for publications, such as string books and posters, among others, which can be found in the urban areas of Sao Paulo.

THE GALLERY

Established in 2004 in São Paulo, Brazil, Galeria Estação inaugurated a curatorial program serving a wide-reaching community of noncanonical artistic voices. By creating trans-generational bridges between emerging contemporary and pioneering self-taught artists, Galeria Estação has inspired an integrative network of creative figures and makers from varied geographies and educational backgrounds.

Since 2008, the gallery's innovative artistic program, housed in a state-of-the-art architectural building, has exhibited contemporary Brazilian artists whose cultural backgrounds and vernacular practices complement the primacy of self-taught art —examining the country's under represented artistic styles, working methods, and historical narratives and legacies.

Galeria Estação's artistic director and founder, Vilma Eid, in collaboration with a distinguished group of invited guest curators, have proposed unexpected dialogues in presentations that have transcended traditional accounts of the development of abstract and figural genres in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries, initiating the past and present of Brazilian art. As a result, Galeria Estação is an institutional reference in Brazil, a force for preserving Latin American memories and narratives otherwise dismissed, marginalized, or overlooked in the historiographies of Brazilian art.

Galeria Estação advances its mission to provide unprecedented opportunities for viewers to experience expansive local and global visions of Brazilian art.

Galeria Estação exhibits a large stable of self-taught artists: Agnaldo dos Santos, Agostinho Batista de Freitas, Amadeo Luciano Lorenzato, Artur Pereira, Chico da Silva, Chico Tabibuia, Conceição dos Bugres, Elza O.S, Geraldo Teles Oliveira – G.T.O, Gilvan Samico, Heitor dos Prazeres, Itamar Julião, Izabel Mendes da Cunha, José Antonio da Silva, Madalena dos Santos Reinbolt, Maria Auxiliadora, Mirian Inês da Silva, Sebastião Theodoro Paulino da Silva – Ranchinho, Zica Bergami.

The growing roster of contemporary artists include: André Ricardo, Deni Lantz, Eduardo Ver, Germana Monte-Mór, José Bezerra, Julio Vilani, Santídio Pereira, Cicero Alves dos Santos - Véio.
