ARTIST'S PORTFOLIO

BIOGRAPHY

Born in 1994, in the city of São Benedito, Ceará, Higo José has lived in São Paulo since 2007. He began his artistic production in the first half of the 2010s and soon started presenting his work in collective shows and solo exhibitions in galleries and institutions in São Paulo—before even graduating in visual arts from the Faculdade Paulista de Artes in 2020.

Higo José's work is characterized both by the variety of languages and techniques he employs, and by the poetic unity he creates through research on the material culture of the first inhabitants of Brazilian territory. In linen embroideries, reliefs, and three-dimensional pieces, the artist reinterprets depictions, processes, and objects found in archaeological sites in Brazil, especially in the Serra da Capivara National Park, in Piauí—about 700 km from his hometown.

Thus, rock art representations of animals, human figures, and hunting scenes take on different forms when transferred into the language of tapestry:

onto the materiality of linen and wool, as contour or silhouette drawings—always made with Russian stitch (worked on the reverse side of the fabric and with raised results)—and into shapes resembling banners, soft and loose, to be displayed on the wall. Added to this are the historical, social, and cultural meanings that hand embroidery lends to those images.

The artist's sculptures evoke objects or megalithic monuments. However, instead of being made from stone blocks, these pieces are made of foam and covered in colored string. The weight and roughness of their references are replaced by lightness, softness, and a vibrant color palette, which impart artificiality to primordial structures, arranged through stacking. The result blurs the distinction between past and present, nature and culture—bringing together the inaugural gesture, the "origin," and its deliberate, reflective repetitions—displaying a historically rich condition for contemporary art.

THE GALLERY

Established in 2004 in São Paulo, Brazil, Galeria Estação inaugurated a curatorial program serving a wide-reaching community of noncanonical artistic voices. By creating trans-generational bridges between emerging contemporary and pioneering self-taught artists, Galeria Estação has inspired an integrative network of creative figures and makers from varied geographies and educational backgrounds.

Since 2008, the gallery's innovative artistic program, housed in a state-of-the-art architectural building, has exhibited contemporary Brazilian artists whose cultural backgrounds and vernacular practices complement the primacy of self-taught art —examining the country's under represented artistic styles, working methods, and historical narratives and legacies.

Galeria Estação's artistic director and founder, Vilma Eid, in collaboration with a distinguished group of invited guest curators, have proposed unexpected dialogues in presentations that have transcended traditional accounts of the development of abstract and figural genres in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries, initiating the past and present of Brazilian art.

As a result, Galeria Estação is an institutional reference in Brazil, a force for preserving Latin American memories and narratives otherwise dismissed, marginalized, or overlooked in the historiographies of Brazilian art.

Galeria Estação advances its mission to provide unprecedented opportunities for viewers to experience expansive local and global visions of Brazilian art.

Galeria Estação exhibits a large stable of self-taught artists: Agnaldo dos Santos, Agostinho Batista de Freitas, Amadeo Luciano LORENZATO, Artur Pereira, Chico da Silva, Chico Tabibuia, Conceição dos Bugres, Elza O.S, Geraldo Teles Oliveira – G.T.O, Gilvan SAMICO, Itamar Julião, Izabel Mendes da Cunha, José Antonio da Silva, Madalena dos Santos Reinbolt, Maria Auxiliadora, Mirian Inêz da Silva, Sebastião Theodoro Paulino da Silva – RANCHINHO, Suanê and Zica Bergami.

The growing roster of contemporary artists include: Higo José, José Bezerra, Julio Vilani, Rafael Pereira, Santídio Pereira, Cicero Alves dos Santos - Véio.
