BIOGRAPHY

Alcides Pereira dos Santos: A Poetics of Territory and Memory

Born in Bahia in 1932, Alcides Pereira dos Santos carved a unique path in the landscape of Brazilian art, shaped by his experiences in different regions of the country and a profound connection to the landscapes and stories that surrounded him.

Based in Mato Grosso for much of his life, the artist absorbed the colors, textures, and cultural diversity of Brazil's Central-West, elements that intertwine in his work, lending it an authenticity that transcends conventional categories.

Before fully dedicating himself to painting, Alcides worked as a “letreiro” (sign maker), creating street signs and banners—a practice that had a significant impact on his artistic production.

This experience influenced the development of his visual language, incorporating graphic elements and a chromatic approach that evoke popular communication and the visual repertoire of the cities and communities where he lived.

ARTIST'S PORFTOLIO

Alcides developed a distinctive pictorial language, where simplified forms and vibrant colors reveal an intimate perspective on daily life and popular imagination.

The power of his work lies in its ability to transform the ordinary into visual poetry, offering viewers a direct connection to the world he portrayed.

Alcides Pereira dos Santos passed away in São Paulo in 2007, but his legacy remains vibrant and ever-expanding.

His works continue to captivate both national and international audiences, reaffirming the universality of his aesthetic.

They challenge conventions, engage with diverse cultural contexts, and preserve the roots of a multifaceted and timeless Brazil.

THE GALLERY

Established in 2004 in São Paulo, Brazil, Galeria Estação inaugurated a curatorial program serving a wide-reaching community of noncanonical artistic voices. By creating trans-generational bridges between emerging contemporary and pioneering self-taught artists, Galeria Estação has inspired an integrative network of creative figures and makers from varied geographies and educational backgrounds.

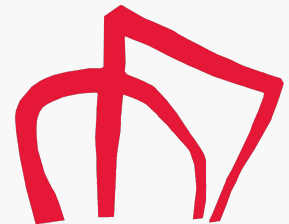

Since 2008, the gallery's innovative artistic program, housed in a state-of-the-art architectural building, has exhibited contemporary Brazilian artists whose cultural backgrounds and vernacular practices complement the primacy of self-taught art —examining the country's under represented artistic styles, working methods, and historical narratives and legacies.

Galeria Estação's artistic director and founder, Vilma Eid, in collaboration with a distinguished group of invited guest curators, have proposed unexpected dialogues in presentations that have transcended traditional accounts of the development of abstract and figural genres in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries, initiating the past and present of Brazilian art. As a result, Galeria Estação is an institutional reference in Brazil, a force for preserving Latin American memories and narratives otherwise dismissed, marginalized, or overlooked in the historiographies of Brazilian art.

Galeria Estação advances its mission to provide unprecedented opportunities for viewers to experience expansive local and global visions of Brazilian art.

Galeria Estação exhibits a large stable of self-taught artists: Agnaldo dos Santos, Agostinho Batista de Freitas, Amadeo Luciano Lorenzato, Artur Pereira, Chico da Silva, Chico Tabibuia, Conceição dos Bugres, Elza O.S, Geraldo Teles Oliveira – G.T.O, Gilvan Samico, Heitor dos Prazeres, Itamar Julião, Izabel Mendes da Cunha, José Antonio da Silva, Madalena dos Santos Reinbolt, Maria Auxiliadora, Mirian Inês da Silva, Sebastião Theodoro Paulino da Silva – Ranchinho, Zica Bergami.

The growing roster of contemporary artists include: André Ricardo, Deni Lantz, Eduardo Ver, Germana Monte-Mór, José Bezerra, Julio Vilani, Santídio Pereira, Cicero Alves dos Santos - Véio.
