ARTIST'S PORFTOLIO

BIOGRAPHY

ARTIST'S PORFTOLIO

Júlio Martins da Silva (1893, Icaraí - RJ – 1978, Rio de Janeiro - RJ) emerges as a singular figure in Brazilian folk art, a visual storyteller whose works capture scenes of daily life and collective memory.

Deeply rooted in Rio de Janeiro's urban experience, his work is marked by an authenticity that transcends academic techniques, opening space for a spontaneous dialogue with Brazilian popular culture.

As documented in Pequeno Dicionário do Povo Brasileiro, Século XX by Lélia Coelho Frota and the 1978-1979 documentary "O que eu estou vendo vocês não podem ver" directed by Carlos Augusto Calil, Júlio Martins da Silva's paintings reflect an aesthetic that synthesizes the simplicity and complexity of Rio de Janeiro's social dynamics in the 20th century.

His works can be seen as pictorial chronicles, imbued with a visual lyricism that evokes the life of streets, markets, popular festivals, and religious manifestations.

More than mere representations, his paintings serve as testimonies of an era, capturing Brazil's urban, cultural, and social transformations.

The absence of formal artistic training did not limit Júlio Martins da Silva's work. On the contrary, it amplified an intuitive expressiveness directly connected to lived experiences and oral traditions.

As Lélia Coelho Frota highlights, his work eloquently demonstrates the power of folk art as a vehicle for preserving and reinterpreting history and national identity.

With his unique perspective and rare ability to capture the spirit of his time, Júlio Martins da Silva remains a fundamental reference for understanding Brazilian folk art.

His works, rich in meaning, transcend exhibition spaces, conveying stories that continue to resonate within contemporary Brazilian culture.

THE GALLERY

Established in 2004 in São Paulo, Brazil, Galeria Estação inaugurated a curatorial program serving a wide-reaching community of noncanonical artistic voices. By creating trans-generational bridges between emerging contemporary and pioneering self-taught artists, Galeria Estação has inspired an integrative network of creative figures and makers from varied geographies and educational backgrounds.

Since 2008, the gallery's innovative artistic program, housed in a state-of-the-art architectural building, has exhibited contemporary Brazilian artists whose cultural backgrounds and vernacular practices complement the primacy of self-taught art —examining the country's under represented artistic styles, working methods, and historical narratives and legacies.

Galeria Estação's artistic director and founder, Vilma Eid, in collaboration with a distinguished group of invited guest curators, have proposed unexpected dialogues in presentations that have transcended traditional accounts of the development of abstract and figural genres in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries, initiating the past and present of Brazilian art. As a result, Galeria Estação is an institutional reference in Brazil, a force for preserving Latin American memories and narratives otherwise dismissed, marginalized, or overlooked in the historiographies of Brazilian art.

Galeria Estação advances its mission to provide unprecedented opportunities for viewers to experience expansive local and global visions of Brazilian art.

Galeria Estação exhibits a large stable of self-taught artists: Agnaldo dos Santos, Agostinho Batista de Freitas, Amadeo Luciano Lorenzato, Artur Pereira, Chico da Silva, Chico Tabibuia, Conceição dos Bugres, Elza O.S, Geraldo Teles Oliveira – G.T.O, Gilvan Samico, Heitor dos Prazeres, Itamar Julião, Izabel Mendes da Cunha, José Antonio da Silva, Madalena dos Santos Reinbolt, Maria Auxiliadora, Mirian Inêz da Silva, Sebastião Theodoro Paulino da Silva – Ranchinho, Zica Bergami.

The growing roster of contemporary artists include: André Ricardo, Deni Lantz, Eduardo Ver, Germana Monte-Mór, José Bezerra, Julio Vilani, Santídio Pereira, Cicero Alves dos Santos - Véio.
