

Nhô Caboclo

ARTIST'S PORTFOLIO

BIOGRAPHY

Born around the first decade of the 20th century, Nhô Caboclo is an artist of extraordinary importance, whose work urgently requires a monographic treatment. Perhaps he was part of the Fulniô community, acculturated Indians of Águas Belas, Pernambuco, but he always made a big mystery about his origins and affiliation: "I didn't know anyone, I was born alone." Mestizo, with a cafuza appearance, he grew up on a farm in Garanhuns. Since he was a boy, he made objects of clay and the of most unusual materials, such as goat-beard and linheira manioc. Years later he reports about himself in Caruaru "producing clay pieces with Vitalino". But his great production was made on the basis of wood and tinfoil. He declared his clay pieces as "dead" because as he stated, "one does not make a sword fighter out of clay, one does not make a steam gear to work with in the wind. I like the brave pieces, the tough ones. The hand-made ones".

Nhô Caboclo began to make manual pieces, that is, the ones with movement, when he dreamed with a gear or went to the movies". Successively a tinker, a shoemaker, a carpenter, a blacksmith, Nhô Caboclo, according to his own words, populated his pieces from the caboclo Urubu ("a caboclo who was never dominated"), from the black Tuim ("There's this brand only in Pedra do Buíque of Delmiro Gouveia"), of the Jabu chiefs (" from the jungles "), of second lieutenants, corporal, sergeants, captains, of four-armed caboclos (" there are some of them in the forest, abroad, it does not matter to run standing or in four feet "). "Everything I do has a history."

THE GALLERY

Established in 2004 in São Paulo, Brazil, Galeria Estação inaugurated a curatorial program serving a wide-reaching community of noncanonical artistic voices. By creating trans-generational bridges between emerging contemporary and pioneering self-taught artists, Galeria Estação has inspired an integrative network of creative figures and makers from varied geographies and educational backgrounds.

Since 2008, the gallery's innovative artistic program, housed in a state-of-the-art architectural building, has exhibited contemporary Brazilian artists whose cultural backgrounds and vernacular practices complement the primacy of self-taught art —examining the country's under represented artistic styles, working methods, and historical narratives and legacies.

Galeria Estação's artistic director and founder, Vilma Eid, in collaboration with a distinguished group of invited guest curators, have proposed unexpected dialogues in presentations that have transcended traditional accounts of the development of abstract and figural genres in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries, initiating the past and present of Brazilian art.

As a result, Galeria Estação is an institutional reference in Brazil, a force for preserving Latin American memories and narratives otherwise dismissed, marginalized, or overlooked in the historiographies of Brazilian art.

Galeria Estação advances its mission to provide unprecedented opportunities for viewers to experience expansive local and global visions of Brazilian art.

Galeria Estação exhibits a large stable of self-taught artists: Agnaldo dos Santos, Agostinho Batista de Freitas, Amadeo Luciano LORENZATO, Artur Pereira, Chico da Silva, Chico Tabibuia, Conceição dos Bugres, Elza O.S, Geraldo Teles Oliveira – G.T.O, Gilvan SAMICO, Itamar Julião, Izabel Mendes da Cunha, José Antonio da Silva, Madalena dos Santos Reinbolt, Maria Auxiliadora, Mirian Inêz da Silva, Sebastião Theodoro Paulino da Silva – RANCHINHO, Suanê and Zica Bergami.

The growing roster of contemporary artists include: Higo José, José Bezerra, Julio Vilani, Rafael Pereira, Santídio Pereira, Cicero Alves dos Santos - Véio.
