

LORENZATO

ARTIST'S PORFTOLIO

AMADEO LUCIANO LORENZATO

1900 - 1995
Belo Horizonte - MG, Brazil

BIOGRAPHY

Currently recognized as one of the greatest names of Brazilian Modernism, Amadeo Lorenzato, of Italian descendant, began painting walls as a child, but it was in his adolescence that he studied arts, during the time he lived in Italy with his family. Back in Brazil, after an accident that made him unable to work in civil construction in 1956, Lorenzato began dedicating himself exclusively to the artistic practice.

The technical refinement brought him closer to the formal aspects of lines and colors, which gained prominence with the use of a sort of metal comb, normally used to create patterns on walls. His pictorial compositions bring together simple, spontaneous and deep lines, demonstrating a genuine minimalism in the representation of the ordinary scenarios of the popular neighborhoods of Belo Horizonte, capital of Minas Gerais State.

THE GALLERY

Established in 2004 in São Paulo, Brazil, Galeria Estação inaugurated a curatorial program serving a wide-reaching community of noncanonical artistic voices. By creating trans-generational bridges between emerging contemporary and pioneering self-taught artists, Galeria Estação has inspired an integrative network of creative figures and makers from varied geographies and educational backgrounds.

Since 2008, the gallery's innovative artistic program, housed in a state-of-the-art architectural building, has exhibited contemporary Brazilian artists whose cultural backgrounds and vernacular practices complement the primacy of self-taught art —examining the country's under represented artistic styles, working methods, and historical narratives and legacies.

Galeria Estação's artistic director and founder, Vilma Eid, in collaboration with a distinguished group of invited guest curators, have proposed unexpected dialogues in presentations that have transcended traditional accounts of the development of abstract and figural genres in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries, initiating the past and present of Brazilian art. As a result, Galeria Estação is an institutional reference in Brazil, a force for preserving Latin American memories and narratives otherwise dismissed, marginalized, or overlooked in the historiographies of Brazilian art.

Galeria Estação advances its mission to provide unprecedented opportunities for viewers to experience expansive local and global visions of Brazilian art.

Galeria Estação exhibits a large stable of self-taught artists: Agnaldo dos Santos, Agostinho Batista de Freitas, Amadeo Luciano Lorenzato, Artur Pereira, Chico da Silva, Chico Tabibuia, Conceição dos Bugres, Elza O.S, Geraldo Teles Oliveira – G.T.O, Gilvan Samico, Heitor dos Prazeres, Itamar Julião, Izabel Mendes da Cunha, José Antonio da Silva, Madalena dos Santos Reinbolt, Maria Auxiliadora, Mirian Inês da Silva, Sebastião Theodoro Paulino da Silva – Ranchinho, Zica Bergami.

The growing roster of contemporary artists include: André Ricardo, Deni Lantz, Eduardo Ver, Germana Monte-Mór, José Bezerra, Julio Vilani, Santídio Pereira, Cicero Alves dos Santos - Véio.
